JULY 2009 ISSUE 7

Quote for the month

“Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbour. Catch the trade winds in your sails.

Explore. Dream. Discover.”

~MARK TWAIN

EVERY DAY HERO

We have recently joined forces with Every Day Hero, an online 'multidimensional giving platform' that makes giving easier, more efficient and more rewarding for those involved. Online fundraising is quick and efficient. Fundraisers can make a request for donations to their entire social network at a click of a button, from the comfort of their desks. And if people don't donate the first time, they can easily remind them! By using email to reach their network, fundraisers can reach friends, family and colleagues from out of state and overseas who would otherwise not be able to participate. Online fundraising is fun and interactive. Fundraisers can update their photo and message as many times as they like and even upload a video, enabling them to keep their supporters updated on their fundraising progress. And with a secure online payment system this eliminates the need for fundraisers to deal with cash – a hassle for most people.

For anyone out there completing the 2009 Sun Herald City to Surf this is a great place to start. Once you have registered in the City to Surf click on the Herald Heroes' Tally on the right hand side of your screen. On the next screen click on the 'Build Hero Page' box and this will take you to where you can select the Burns Support Foundation to raise funds on behalf of.

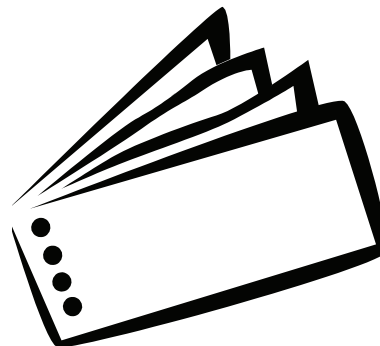

Alternatively you can go straight to <http://www.everydayhero.com.au/> and create your event and your home page and start raising funds alongside any sporting challenge you set for yourself.
