BSF Gala Night

The Gala night arranged by Renee Creech was a fantastic success. The effort organising the event was extraordinary. The Star of the night – Brave Heart - Cody Creech - a burn survivor stole the show as the “youngest” auctioneers assistant! Over $20,000 was raised. Congratulations to all involved in particular the Creech family.

Is your child over 10yrs old?

If your child is between 10-18 years of age they may attend the Children's Camp for Burns survivors which is held annually and is run by the Westmead Children's Hospital staff. If you would like to attend or receive further information please contact Cheri at the Physiotherapy Department on (02) 9845 3369 or Sandra at the Social Work department on (02) 9845 2641.

Screen Print Fun

This camp, we encourage you to bring an inexpensive, white or light-coloured T-Shirt to the camp and we can screen print the BSF logo on it for you.

Santa Cheer

A big thank you to Ron Hodder (a grandfather of a survivor) who played Santa at Gynea Tradies. The club did not charge people to take pictures but instead requested that people give a gold coin donation to go towards our foundation.

They were able to raise just over $1300!!!

Thanks again for all your efforts.

The gift that keeps on giving

Our enormous gratitude to Michelle Budzinski for her donation of $1,170! Michelle declined birthday presents for herself, preferring to have friends and loved ones "gift" money to the BSF instead, which enables us to support a number of families to attend our family camps – a significant "gift" to struggling families! HAPPY BIRTHDAY MICHELLE!!!!

Donations - Thank you to all those who kindly donated to our charity. Suzy Raven, Suzi Baillie, Michael Weeks
