CAMP WEDDERBURN RULES

1. FORMS: All forms are extremely important and must be completed to include all family members. All forms must be emailed back to info@burnssupportfoundation.org.au, the forms cannot be collected at the retreat.
2. WHO CAN ATTEND THE CAMP: The camp is intended for both adults and children, burn survivors and family/friends, persons under the age of 18 years must be accompanied by an adult. Please contact us if you have any queries.
3. DINING ROOM: Please ensure you keep the dining area clean and tidy after each meal, this is the responsibility of all attendees and must not be left to a few.
4. DAMAGE & LOSS:
 - a. You are responsible for all equipment that is lent to you so please take care of it.
 - b. Venue Management will check your room on Sunday, you are responsible for any damages.
 - c. There will be a cleaning fee charge of $50 to the occupant of any room that is left in an unsatisfactory state, and you will be accountable to pay for any damages to the room. This is not the responsibility of the Burns Support Foundation.
5. BEDDING: Bedding is not to be removed from the rooms (this is in accordance with venue regulations).
6. RESTRICTIONS:
 - a. There will be NO underage drinking tolerated.
 - b. This is a family retreat, moderate drinking for adults over the age of 18yrs is permitted only till 11pm on Saturday and only once the younger children have gone to bed in an area set aside by the committee, heavy drinking will NOT be tolerated. Camp sites are typically an alcohol-free zone, please do not abuse this privilege and spoil it for all.
 - c. Illegal drugs will NOT be tolerated.
 - d. Smoking is not permitted in any building on site, near the activities or in close proximity to others. Smoking is permitted outdoors only in designated areas. Underage smoking will NOT be tolerated.
 - e. No noise after 9.30pm to allow younger children to settle.
 - f. No animals allowed under any circumstances.
 - g. No personal bikes and scooters are allowed on campsites for safety reasons.
7. FIRST AID: There will be a qualified first aid person on site.
8. GROUP SESSIONS: A timetable for group sessions with Sandra Spalding will be displayed in the dining room for those who would like to attend.
9. ACTIVITY TIMETABLE: The timetable for group activities will be provided and will also be displayed in the dining area, please check to see which group you have been allocated to. There can be NO changing of groups.
10. CAMP ETIQUETTE: During activities, please ensure your actions do not compromise the safety of yourself, your family and any other member of your group. If in doubt, please consult a committee member. Safety is paramount, discuss with your committee member if any action or behavior that is thought to be inappropriate, their advice is in your best interest.
11. MEALTIMES: To prevent any injuries, we ask that children be supervised by their parents during all mealtimes. This will ensure minimal risk of a burn from hot food & drinks.

Please adhere to these rules and please respect the flora and fauna to help make our camp an enjoyable and a safe one in the camp environment. Thank you and enjoy the retreat!

FAMILY & CHILDREN SUPERVISION RULES

1. Parents/Guardians are always fully responsible for the supervision and safety of their children during the camp. This includes all activities, at mealtimes and during free times.
2. Your child/children cannot remain in the group at an activity without at least ONE of the parents/guardians are present. in no way are Burns Support Foundation or Venue Staff responsible for your child and their safety.
3. There is one exception; while parents/guardians are attending the parent's group session with Sandra, arrangements to supervise your child/children will be provided by the Burns Support Foundation Committee for approximately 2 hours on a Saturday morning which the parent/guardian will collect their child/children immediately after this session.
4. Should you arrange for another parent to supervise your child during free times, the Burns Support Foundation and/or activity contractors are in no way responsible for their safety. We ask you to give some thought before asking other people to take on the responsibility of your children and similarly of accepting the responsibility.
5. STRANGER DANGER: Parents, even though we are at a campsite, you need to look after your own children. You should not assume that people walking around the site pose no threat to their children. Therefore, careful supervision is always important especially when children are playing outside. The campsite and the Burns Support Foundation take NO RESPONSIBILITY for the safety of children except during the time that parents are attending the facilitated parents' group (approx. 2 hours duration on Saturday morning).
6. If the parents/guardian decides to leave the campsite, you must take all family members with you. Please inform a Burns Support Foundation Committee Member and the Camp Coordinator prior to leaving the site and upon your return.
7. MEALTIMES: To prevent any injuries, we ask that supervision of children is provided during all mealtimes. This will ensure minimal risk of a burn from the hot plates.
8. WILDLIFE: It should be remembered to take adequate care and be watchful of wildlife such as snakes, spiders, etc....
